

(Hebrews 3:12)

- Why would the writer of Hebrews give a warning to the community of Christians concerning the belief of their heart?
- What is an evil heart of unbelief?
- How would a person examine himself in order to discover whether or not he has an evil heart of unbelief?
- What is the result of an evil heart of unbelief?

---Can you explain what it means to depart from the living God?

(Hebrews 3:13)

- What is every Christian's responsibility toward one another concerning the condition of the heart?
- Are believers called and commanded to produce a particular effect upon one another?
- What type of effects do you have on the community of Christians of which you are a part?
- How urgent is the command to exhort one another?
- What does it mean to exhort one another?
- Can you explain why we have a responsibility or personal obligation to exhort one another?

---Are we really responsible to guard the heart of other Christians or to help them examine their heart?

(Hebrews 3:14)

- Explain what it means to be a part of Jesus Christ?
- Explain how you could lay a foundation and build an unshakable confidence or ability to stand in the heart of another person.
- Is it possible to build an unshakable constant state within the heart?

---Our belief in Christ must be equal in quality to who He is.
