

(Hebrews 3:2)

- What does it mean that Jesus was faithful to the One that appointed Him?
- What is being faithful mean from Jesus' perspective and position?
- What does it mean that Moses was also faithful in all his house?
- What is being faithful mean from Moses' perspective and position?

(Hebrews 3:3)

- What is Jesus in comparison to Moses?
- Do you know what Moses' name means?
- What do you think it means that the One who builds the house has more honor than the house?

(Hebrews 3:4)

- According to verse four, what is man capable of doing?
- Where did man get this capability?
- Who should get the credit for the accomplishment of a household?

(Hebrews 3:5)

- From what position did Moses fulfill his faithfulness to his household?
- How could Moses be a servant to his household while he was considered the head of his household?
- How does being a faithful servant relate to being a witness and providing proof of things which were coming at a later time?

(Hebrews 3:6)

- What is the difference between Moses being a servant in his house and Jesus being a Son over His house?
- Are you a member of Jesus' household?
- Is He over you as a leading authority or ruler?
- What does verse 6 require as an evidence of one being a member of the household that Jesus is over?
- Explain what it means to hold the confidence and rejoicing of hope firm unto the end to yourself first, and then try it on someone else.
- Does the word "end" in verse 6 mean terminate, or could it mean something more?
