

(Hebrews 4:1)

- Among a congregation of Christians, what should be their greatest concern for another?
- Should Christians really have a fear that there may be some among them that would or could not enter into God's rest?
- What did God give to mankind that provided the possibility to enter into His finished work?
- Explain to another person how to enter into God's finished work.
- What is God's rest and how would a person know he has entered there?
- Explain to another person how someone could come short of entering into God's rest or finished work.
- Can a person even believe all the facts about Jesus and not be at rest about their eternal destination?

(Hebrews 4:2)

- What must happen within a person for the preaching of God's Word to become profitable unto them?
- Can the preaching of the gospel reveal unbelief just as well as it can produce belief?
- What is the gospel?
- What is the connection between the gospel and God's rest?
- What does it mean to preach the gospel?
Who is supposed to do this?
- Can God's intelligence be communicated in terms man can understand?
- Can you explain how the preaching of the gospel and the mixing of that gospel with faith happens within someone?
- What does the word "profit" mean?
- Can you explain the process of faith that becomes a prevailing or overcoming benefit to a person?
Overcoming and removing all doubt and uncertainty
