

Hebrews 6:1

- How does Hebrews 6:1 relate to what the writer spoke of in Chapter 5, especially in Heb. 5:12-14?
- What do you believe the writer means by “leaving the principles of doctrine of Christ?”
- What are principles?
- What is doctrine?
- What are we to go on to once we leave the principles of the doctrine of Christ?
- What is perfection?
- What are we not to lay down again?
- What is repentance?
- What is dead works?
- What is dead faith or unproductive faith?

Hebrews 6:2

- What are some of the doctrines that can be a part of dead works and unproductive faith?
- Is it possible to have these beliefs and practices and not have true faith toward God?

Hebrews 6:3

- If a person is allowed to leave the principles of the doctrine of Christ and go on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance, where do they obtain this ability and liberty?
