

Hebrews 8:1

- What does the writer of Hebrews mean by “the sum of the things which have been spoken?”
- How was this to set the attitude of the reader toward Jesus Christ?
- What kind of high priest would be seated on the throne of the majesty in the heavens?
- What does the word “throne” imply?
- What does the word “majesty” mean, and how would you relate the meaning to God and Jesus?
- Is Jesus Christ, as He is seated on the throne, present in God's activity or active in God's presence?
- What does Jesus' position mean concerning you and me?

Hebrews 8:2

- What does the word “minister” mean?
- What does the word “sanctuary” mean?
- What is meant by the “the true tabernacle which the Lord pitched and not man?”
- How would you describe Jesus' function as a high priest as a result of discovering the descriptions given in this verse?
- How can the book of Hebrews through the first seven chapters change one's mind about the work that God has done through Jesus?
