

Hebrews 11:1

- What are the two elements of faith mentioned in this verse?
- What does “the substance of things hoped for” mean?
- What is meant by faith being “the evidence of things not seen?”
- In Rom. 10:17, if faith is the result of the Word of God, then how does the Word of God create hope in a person’s heart and evidence in his/her life?

Hebrews 11:2

- What is meant by “a good report?”
- And why only elders?

Hebrews 11:3

- Does faith really produce comprehension in the human mind?
- What do we understand about creation?
- How would you explain how things were made?
- Reviewing Rom. 1:20, do the things that have created reveal the reality of their Creator?
- Can faith in God be disconnected from the things He created?
- Does your life of faith reveal the work of God?
