

Hebrews 13:5

- Explain, "Let your conversation be without covetousness."
- What is contentment?
- Are you content with what you have?
- Are you content with the things you are involved in, such as church, work, etc.?
- Do you believe that God would make a commitment to you to never leave you or forsake you?
- How would you communicate God's commitment to someone else?
- What is His commitment based on?

Hebrews 13:6

- How much confidence do you have in God as your helper?
- Do you have the boldness to say this to every situation you face?
- Is your confidence so steadfast in God's help that man's challenge or opposition toward you does not cause you to turn from your purpose or progress?
- When God is for us does that mean we will never suffer loss or be damaged by man's opposition?
